

Food Safety Authority of Ireland

Helen Crowley
Information Executive

What's our job?

To protect consumer health by ensuring food in Ireland is safe

How can we help new or small businesses?

We can help to guide businesses through the legal requirements and have a huge variety of publications and resources to make things a bit easier

We can advise on...

- Registering your business with the appropriate competent authority
- What legislation you need to know and where to find it
- Developing your food safety management system based on HACCP
- Food safety training and whether you need it
- Your traceability system

Website and Publications

- Comprehensive website
 - Dedicated business start-up section
 - Access legislation
 - Frequently Asked Questions on variety of topics
- Publications
 - Leaflets
 - Guidance documents on legislation
 - Factsheets
 - Safe Catering Pack

How can you get help?

- Visit our website www.fsai.ie
- Send an Email info@fsai.ie
- Call our Advice Line 1890 336677
- Sign up for our Newsletter
- Subscribe to our email updates

Visit our Information Stand to speak with one of our staff

